Lifeline for Longfins[1]

We, the undersigned, support this petition which calls on the Minister of Fisheries; Hon. Phil Heatley, to place a moratorium on commercial fishing of the longfin eel (tuna).

Full Name	Address	E mail address (this will be kept confidential)	Signature

Send completed forms to: Manaaki Tuna Petition, 1501 Mangapoike Rd, RD6, Wairoa 4196

[1] Longfin eels are an endemic native fish. They do not breed until the end of their life, so every one killed never has any offspring. That is why commercial fishing has caused the population to plunge, and threatens them with extinction. For information or to sign the petition online go to : http://www.forestandbird.org.nz/saving-our-environment/freshwater-/lifeline-longfins